Corrupt FPS Owners in UP

2162. MAULANA OBAIDULLAH KHAN AZMI: Will the Minister of CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that most of the owners of Fair Price Shops in Central and Eastern uttar Pradesh are dishonest, unscrupulous, and corrupt; and

(b) what steps have been taken against them?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (DEPTT. OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM) (SHRI VENOD SHARMA): (a) and (b) The implementation of the Public Distribution System (PDS) is the joint responsibility of Central and State Governments. The Central Government is responsible for the procurement, storage, transportation and bulk allocation of key essential commodities such as rice, wheat, levy sugar, imported edible oils, superior kerosene oil, and soft coke to States/UTs. State Governments/UT Administrations are responsible for all operational matters relating to the distribution of commodities to the consumers within their State/UT. State Governments/UT Administrations have been delegated the authority under the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 which enables them to take action against persons indulging in malpractices in the distribution of commodities under the PDS. State Government/UT Administrations undertake raids and surprise checks in addition to regular inspections as part of their enforcement functions. Central Government has advised States/Uts to set up vigilance Committees of consumers at the Fair Price Shop level to ensure people's participation in the supervision of the PDS. The Central Government has not received any specific reports from the Government of Uttar Pradesh that majority of Fair Price Shops Owners in Uttar Pradesh are corrupt, unscrupulous and dishonest.

High cost of maintenance of Surplus Stocks of Foodgrains

2163. SHRI BHUPINDER SINGH MANN: Will the Minister of FOOD be Pleased to state:

(a) what is the quantity of food grains reserves piling up for the last three years;

(b) the cost of maintaining and depreciation value thereof;

(c) the anticipated arrivals of foodgrains and targets for the next three years; and

(d) the reasons for not allowing free export of agricultural produce, even in the event of surplus expectations and high cost of maintenance of stocks?

THE MINISTER OF FOOD (SHRI AJIT SINGH): (a) The stocks in the Central Pool as on 1.11.93, 1.11.94 and 1.11.95 were as under:

(In Million Tonnes)

	1.11.93 (P)	1.11.94 (P)	1.11.95 (P)
Wheat	12.94	14.98	15.77
Rice	8.26	15.44	12.41
Total	21.20	30.42	28.18

(b) The Cost of maintaining foodgrains stocks and loss due to damage for last three years are as follows:

Rs/Crores

Year	Cost of Maintenance	Loss due to damage
1992-93	450.69	—
1993-94	1245.34	7.24
1994-95	1853.48	38.53

(c) Arrival of foodgrains in the mandis depend on various factors such as production, open market prices, support price fixed by the Government etc., and therefore it is not Possible to assess the market arrival for the coming years. Further, procurement of foodgrains (wheat, paddy & coarsegrains) for Central Pool under price support scheme being totally voluntary and the procurement of levy rice from millers/traders being dependent on quantum of paddy purchased by them, not targets, as such, can be fixed for procurement of wheat and rice.

(d) As per the extent EXIM Policy, export of both Basmati and non-Basmati rice is allowed freely. Export of wheat products and hybrid jowar produced as kharif crop is also freely allowed. Export of wheat, coarse grains and pulses are allowed subject to quantitative ceilings released from time to time. The export ceilings released for 1995-96 in respect of durum wheat, non-durum wheat, coarse grains and pulses are 5 lakh tonnes, 25 lakh tonnes, 30,000 tonnes and 10,000 tonnes respectively. The EXIM Policy on foodgrains is decided in such a way that it does not adversely affect the food security of the country.

As regards export from public stocks is concerned, in view of the comfortable stock position of foodgrains in the Central Pool, Government has authorised the Food Corporation of India to export/sell for the purpose of export 2.5 million tonnes of non-durum wheat and 2 million tonnes of fine and superfine rice (since decided to be increased to 3 million tonnes) during 1995-96.
